

INSV Tarini on her second leg of Circumnavigation

1. Indian Naval Sailing Vessel (INSV) Tarini, manned by an all women Indian Crew, is currently on her second leg of circumnavigation and is expected to reach Lyleton, News Zealand by end November 2017.
2. The first leg of the voyage from Goa to Fremantle, Australia, spanning over 5000 nautical miles was covered in 42 days. The current leg from Fremantle to Lyleton is expected to take 25-26 days. We expect the vessel to touch our shores (Cape Town) in February 2018.
3. A commemorative event is being organised by the High Commission of India at Freedom Park on 30 November 2017, during which real-time interaction with the crew of Tarini will take place.
4. You can follow the progress of INSV Tarini on <https://www.facebook.com/IndianNavy> and <https://www.facebook.com/INSV-Tarini-738205499672454>

